F2B ONCE UPON A TIME THE ROMANS

Half day walking tour exclusive

A half day tour in the outstanding Museo Nazionale Romano, where Roman artistic treasures are kept, and Michelangelo became architect. Ancient Rome and the Colosseum are huge and overwhelming, but where is all the precious art gone? That's kept in the Museo Nazionale Romano, Palazzo Massimo and Terme di Diocleziano.

In the short span of morning hours you'll see so many famous art treasures away from the crowd and traffic; you'll stroll in an evergreen wood once belonging to the Thermal Baths of Diocletian- what's more, that huge courtyard was restored by Michelangelo!

Let your guide treat you with lost statues from the imperial palace such as Myron's Discobolus (Discus Thrower) and the Old Boxer, richly painted frescoes from the Garden Villa of Empress Livia, colorful mosaics and tombs of any sort and kind! At the end of the tour, keep some space in your heart for science and astronomy, as you will walk in the Basilica of Santa Maria degli Angeli, housing the one and only planetary sundial built by XVII century astronomers for the Pope to calculate the perfect sequence of day and night throughout the seasons.

Enjoy the pleasure of walking in amazing quietness in front of first class art pieces and let Rome show you its best treasures !

ROME SMALL GROUP TOUR

F6 THE HEART OF THE ANCIENT ROME AND GHETTO

Half day tour walking tour

Enjoy a morning tour among two of the most iconic districts of Rome: Trastevere, whose name means on the other side of the river "Tevere", and the old Jewish ghetto. The tour starts from "Piazza Trilussa" in Trastevere and continues with the visit of St. Mary Basilica, one of the few remaining Byzantine churches in the city. Passing through the narrow alleys of the area, you will arrive to the Tiberine island, "Isola Tiberina", with its two important and well known hospitals and basilicas. Crossing the river you will see a huge complex called "Portico d'Ottavia", located in the old Jewish ghetto. During the Imperial age, the old market was housed in the Jewish district.

Walking through the small streets of the ghetto, you will discover the beauty of the Turtle Fountain, built by Gianlorenzo Bernini, maximum exponent of the baroque period, and the "S.Andrea della Valle" church in the real heart of the district. The tour ends at Giordano Bruno's square, the renown "Campo dei Fiori", where today one of the most important and crowded modern open-air market is located.

Highlights:

F6B SECRETS ROME... OFF THE BEATEN TRACK!

Half day tour exclusive walk downtown Rome

In this tour you will walk three times underground, through ruins and columns, you will enter a 2000 years old market and cross an island by the oldest bridge of Rome: it will be great fun for the whole family and children!

Is it true that every church in Rome is built over the ruins of pagan temples? That's what you will discover when you'll get in Saint Nicholas in Carcere, set over some very old places of worship! A short hop away, by Portico d'Ottavia and Marcellus theatre ruins, you'll cross the oldest bridge of Rome, 2000 years old and still standing!

There you are on the Tiber Island; next comes the underground house of Santa Cecilia, featuring ancient mosaics, mysterious inscriptions and a lavishly ornated crypt; at the end, you will visit the quite unknown church of San Crisogono built over a huge underground house, where archaeologists found a large frescoed wall.

Let this adventurous, easy walk make your day as your guide will show you these ancient venues, unknown to the general public although set in the very heart of Rome!

Important notice:

This tour is intended as a walk which enters underground areas and places of worship: Should anyone feel uncomfortable in underground spaces, the guide can deal with it; those people will comfortably sit in the top church, while the rest of the group will visit the underground. It is advisable to wear comfortable shoes such as sport trainers and to respect the churches dress code: trousers should touch the knee and shoulders should be covered; tourists may consider bringing a scarf to wear at necessity.

ROME SMALL GROUP TOUR

F6B + F7 SECRETS ROME AND THE UNDERGROUND BASILICAS

Full day walking tour (lunch included)

In the morning tour you will walk three times underground, through ruins and columns, you will enter a 2000 years old market and cross an island by the oldest bridge of Rome: it will be great fun for the whole family and children! Is it true that every church in Rome is built over the ruins of pagan temples? That's what you will discover when you'll get in Saint Nicholas in Carcere, set over some very old places of worship! A short hop away, by Portico d'Ottavia and Marcellus theatre ruins, you'll cross the oldest bridge of Rome, 2000 years old and still standing! There you are on the Tiber Island; next comes the underground house of Santa Cecilia, featuring ancient mosaics, mysterious inscriptions and a lavishly ornated crypt; at the end, you will visit the quite unknown church of San Crisogono built over a huge underground house, where archaeologists found a large frescoed wall.

Lunch in a typical Italian restaurant.

In the afternoon walking tour of Christian Rome to discover the underground treasures in some of the most sensational churches. The tour starts in the Lateran area, whose name comes from the family owner of the territory where the first Popes use to live before going to Avignone in France and come back to Rome later on in the Vatican area. Visit of St. John Lateran Basilica, the oldest of the four Papal Basilicas, considered "The Church of Rome", the mother of all churches The Cathedral, the place where the Bishop has the seat. Then the tour continues with the visit of St. Clement's Basilica, the only church in Rome to be built on 3 different levels, from the 1st to the 12th century and the underground floors can be explored, including the altar of Mithras from the 1st century. Continue to the Church of the Four Crowned Saints, dedicated to four anonymous saints and martyrs and where in the 2002, an extraordinary series of frescoes was discovered with scenes of the Zodiac, Four Seasons, Liberal Arts and King Solomon. The visit ends with St. Peter's in Chains Basilica, called like that for the chains that, according to the tradition, Helene – Constantine's mother brought in Rome and for a miracle where joined to the other St. Peter's chain in Rome. The church, furthermore, is very well renowned for the statue of Moses that Michelangelo created for the tomb of the Pope Julius II.

Important notice:

This tour is intended as a walk which enters underground areas and places of worship: Should anyone feel uncomfortable in underground spaces, the guide can deal with it; those people will comfortably sit in the top church, while the rest of the group will visit the underground. It is advisable to wear comfortable shoes such as sport trainers and to respect the churches dress code: trousers should touch the knee and shoulders should be covered; tourists may consider bringing a scarf to wear at necessity.

ROME SURROUNDING

F10 RELIVE ANCIENT OSTIA, THE OTHER POMPEII

Skip the line - Half day Tour

Re-live the glory of Ancient Rome with a guided visit to Ostia Antica with us: a lively harbor town founded in the 4th century BC. Ancient Ostia is commonly referred to as "Better than Pompeii", due to the astonishing preservation of its buildings. You will stroll through ancient taverns, baths, apartments, groceries and theatres and you will be surprised to see that their present condition so strikingly exceeds the Roman Forum. Here, it is so easy to let your imagination fly back to the times of the Roman harbor where the isolated ruins reveal no sign of the modern world, thus giving you a truly authentic experience! Strolling along the main street, the Decumanus Maximus, your tour guide will tell you fascinating stories of the past. The Roman statues lining the walkways, still in perfect condition, will make you feel as though you are walking among the ancient Romans! You will even be enticed to take a dip in the Baths of Neptune, crowned by an impressively intact mosaic representing the Sea God in a chariot drawn by sea horses. Don't miss the chance to experience Ancient Ostia, a truly Roman experience.

Highlights

- See the archaeological site of Ancient Ostia and discover more about the history of Rome.

ONE DAY TOUR FROM ROME

F19 TUSCANY WINE TOUR SIENA & SAN GIMIGNANO

Full day tour – food and wine tasting included

Enjoy a full-day journey from Rome, through the Chianti hills, to visit the cities of San Gimignano and Siena. San Gimignano, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is known as “The City of the Hundred Towers” and it still maintains its original features and timeless charm. Furthermore, the name 'San Gimignano' is linked to one of the most historical Tuscan wines: “La Vernaccia di San Gimignano”. Arriving in San Gimignano you will explore its charming medieval streets, visit the old center of this wonderful city where the famous Chianti wine is produced. Stop for a wine tasting and local products in a beautiful wine cellar: 10 different types of wine and oil, then visit the estate and learn about the processing of the grapes. Lunch at the restaurant of the estate. Then continue to Siena, a beautiful medieval city in Italy. You will visit the heart of Siena and the central square known as “Piazza del Campo”, known worldwide for the famous “Palio”, a horse race twice around the square in a medieval style every summer. Siena is famous not only for its wine but also for its sweets: the “Panpepato”, “Panforte”, “Ricciarelli”. Stop for a good Italian coffee and taste a typical sweet of Siena. Departure for Rome at 5:00pm.
